NATIONAL STATISTICAL INSTITUTE

CATALOGUE OF STATISTICAL PUBLICATIONS 2012

Dear users,

The National Statistical Institute presents to the users of statistical information Catalogue of Statistical Publications 2012.

The Catalogue of Statistical Publications contains detailed and clearly structured information on publications issued by NSI in 2012, presented in three themes (General Publications, Population and Social Statistics, and Economy), including a title of the issue, short summary of its content, ISSN number, periodicity, type of the issue (printed or electronic), price and publication deadline.

In line with the international practice, the National Statistical Institute provides a relevant electronic version of the printed publications on CD-ROM, as well as electronic publications available on CD-ROM and free of charge on NSI website.

The NSI website (<http://www.nsi.bg>) presents a wide range of up-to-date information about the activity of the NSI and the statistical surveys results.

In case you need more detailed information or information not available in the NSI publications and website, please contact to Relations with Users Division .

The agreed practice of holding press conferences by the NSI Head Office and the Regional Statistical Offices also contributes towards a wider dissemination of the statistical surveys results.

The users could also use the rich NSI library collection.

We hope that the Catalogue of Statistical Publications will be useful as a basic guide to statistical information products offered by NSI and will greatly facilitate users of statistical information.

We welcome any comments and recommendations which could contribute towards improving the quality of NSI information products and the work on their dissemination.

Assoc. Prof. Mariana Kotzeva, PhD

President of the National Statistical Institute
